

6 Things you should know about K9 Veterans

1

Not all K9 dogs are German Shepards. There are Belgian Malinois, Bloodhounds, Akitas, and Belgian Sheephounds.

They can differentiate between identical twins.

2

3

They can smell living things buried up to 12 feet in the ground.

Most of the K9 dogs are from Europe and they undergo a 10 -12 weeks training.

4

5

K9's are used in detecting narcotics, tracking people, bombs and public enforcement.

Both male and female dogs are trained to be officers. K9's can search for objects 4 times faster than humans.
